Knee Cap Pain Study

Researchers at the University of Kentucky are conducting research to determine the walking and differences in sensation in individuals with knee cap pain.

You may be eligible for this research study if you:

- are 18-45 years old;
- are female;
- have knee cap pain OR are healthy and have no history of any major lower extremity surgeries or injuries.

Participants will be compensated for their time.

For more information or to participate, please contact:
Kaley Robertson kaley.robertson@uky.edu
OR
Rachelle McKinley: rcmc226@uky.edu
Phone: 859-218-0581