34th Annual BGSFN Spring Neuroscience Day
Friday, April 13, 2018
Lexington Convention Center

Chair: Olivier Thibault, PhD
Department of Pharmacology and Nutritional Sciences

10:45 - 11:45 am: “Progress and Challenges to Understanding the Complex Roles of IGF-1 on Brain and Vascular Aging”
William E. Sonntag, PhD
Professor and Director
Donald W. Reynolds Oklahoma Center on Aging
University of Oklahoma Health Science Center

11:45 - 12:00 pm: Break

12:00 - 1:30 pm: Lunch and CCTS Keynote

1:30 - 1:45 pm: Break

1:45 - 2:45 pm: “Medication Development for Opioid Use Disorder: How Well Do the Results from Preclinical and Clinical Studies Align?”
Sandra D. Comer, PhD
Professor of Clinical Neuroscience,
Department of Psychiatry
College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University

3:00 - 5:00 pm: Poster Session

Register Here: https://ccts.uky.edu/ccts/2018-ccts-spring-conference

In Conjunction with:
13th Annual
Center for Clinical and Translational Science
Spring Conference
“OPIOIDS: Addressing the Public Health Crisis through Translational Science”

Deadlines:
Mentor Award Nominations
February 26
Abstract Submissions
March 5
Conference Registration
March 30