

UK College of Nursing Scholarship Showcase

Friday, April 13, 2018

Lexington Convention Center

Thoroughbred 4

Chair: Lee Anne Walmsley, PhD, MSN, RN

10:00 - 11:45 am: CCTS Breakout Session

"Do the Next Right Thing: A Family-Centered & Multidisciplinary Approach to the Treatment of Substance Use Disorders among Perinatal Women"

Co-Chair: Kristin Ashford, PhD, WHNP-BC, FAAN, College of Nursing

Co-Chair: Agatha Critchfield, MD, College of Medicine

12:00 - 1:30 pm: CCTS Lunch and Keynote

1:45 - 3:15 pm: College of Nursing Scholarship Showcase

Keynote: "Tobacco is a Social Justice Issue"

Amanda Fallin-Bennett, PhD, RN

Assistant Professor, College of Nursing, University of Kentucky

Student Presentations

"Get Fit and Quit: A Novel Intervention for Perinatal Tobacco Cessation" Kylie Dougherty, BSN Student

"Secondhand smoke exposure and its impact on nicotine dependence and smoking cessation among patients with psychiatric and substance use disorders" Sarret Seng, BSN Student

"Gender Differences in determining Cardiovascular Disease Risk" Katherine Webb, BSN Student

"Evaluation of a Critical-Care Pain Observation Tool Quality Initiative" Caissy Goe, DNP Student

"Perceived Control Predicts Symptom Frequency, Severity and Burden in Patients with Heart Failure" Chin-Yen Lin, PhD Student

"Airflow limitation more than doubles the risk for hospitalization/mortality in patients with heart failure" Andrew Bugajski, PhD Student

3:30 - 5:30 pm: Poster Session

Special Thanks to Dr. Barbara Teague for her support of the Teague Awards for Excellence

In Conjunction with:

 Center for Clinical and Translational Science

13th Annual Spring Conference

 @UK_CCTS

 @UKCCTS

#ukyccts2018

 College of Nursing