

UK Center for Clinical and Translational Science 13th Annual Spring Conference

10:00 - 11:45 am: Breakout Session

Do the Next Right Thing: A Family-Centered & Multidisciplinary Approach to the Treatment of Substance Use Disorders among Perinatal Women

Thoroughbred 4

Kristin Ashford, PhD, WHNP-BC, FAAN, Session Co-Chair

Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Faculty and Interprofessional Education Affairs
Director, Perinatal Research and Wellness Center
College of Nursing, University of Kentucky

Agatha Critchfield, MD, Session Co-Chair

Assistant Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Medical Director, PATHways Program
College of Medicine, University of Kentucky

“Background and Introduction to PATHways”

Kristin Ashford, PhD, WHNP-BC, FAAN

“PATHways: Prenatal Program”

Agatha Critchfield, MD

Jason Joy, MS, LMFT

Alcohol Counselor/Prevention Coordinator, Department of Maternal-Fetal Medicine
College of Medicine, University of Kentucky

“PATHways: Inpatient Support, Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome and the NACU”

Lori Shook, MD

Clinical Faculty, Department of Pediatrics, College of Medicine, University of Kentucky

“PATHways: Beyond Birth”

Nancy Jennings, RN, BSN

Instructor, College of Nursing, University of Kentucky

Jason Joy, MS, LMFT

“Closing”

Kristin Ashford, PhD, WHNP-BC, FAAN

Agatha Critchfield, MD

 Center for Clinical and Translational Science

Accelerating discoveries to improve healthSM

 @UK_CCTS

 @UKCCTS

#ukyccts2018